

Carter Post-presidency

1. Jimmy Carter, 1994. (Credit: The Carter Center)
2. Jimmy Carter and then-North Korea President Kim Il-Sung in Pyongyang in 1994 for talks resulting in an eight-year freeze of the country's nuclear weapons program, June 16, 1994. (Credit: The Carter Center)
3. Beginning in 1984, Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter volunteered one week a year to build homes for Habitat for Humanity. Jimmy Carter is pictured here working in the Watts/Willowbrook community of Los Angeles in 1995. (Credit: Habitat for Humanity)
4. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter co-led with former U.S. Secretary of State James Baker and former Costa Rica President Oscar Arias Sanchez the Carter Center's observation of the October 20, 1996, presidential elections in Managua. (Credit: The Carter Center)
5. Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter in Jakarta during the Carter Center's observation of elections in Indonesia, June 7, 1999. (Credit: The Carter Center)
6. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter arrives in Havana, Cuba, on May 12, 2002, during a historic visit to urge the United States and Cuban governments to mend relations. Also pictured are Cuba President Fidel Castro and Rosalynn Carter. (Credit: The Carter Center)
7. In 2002, Jimmy Carter was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize "for his decades of untiring effort to find peaceful solutions to international conflicts, to advance democracy and human rights, and to promote economic and social development." (Credit: The Carter Center) (Quote excerpted from Norwegian Nobel Committee's announcement.)
8. Jimmy Carter witnesses ballot counting by lamplight at a polling station in Liberia during the Carter Center's observation of presidential elections on October 11, 2005. (Credit: The Carter Center)
9. Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter help deliver treatments to prevent river blindness disease during a trip to Jimma, Ethiopia, to assess Carter Center health programs in February 2007. (Credit: The Carter Center)
10. Jimmy Carter taught Sunday school regularly at Maranatha Baptist Church in Plains after he left the White House. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
11. Jimmy Carter consoles a young patient having a worm removed from her body in Savelugu, Ghana, in February 2007. The Carter Center leads the international campaign to eradicate Guinea worm disease. (Credit: The Carter Center)
12. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and former First Lady Rosalynn Carter wear traditional Ghanaian attire, a gift from the chief of Tingoli village in northern Ghana, during a field trip to assess Carter Center disease prevention work in Africa in February 2007. (Credit: The Carter Center)

13. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and former First Lady Rosalynn Carter with young victims of schistosomiasis disease, during a trip to Nasarawa, Nigeria to assess Carter Center health programs in February 2007. (Credit: The Carter Center)

14. Jimmy and Rosalynn Carter led the Carter Center's international observation delegation for the January 2011 referendum on the self-determination of Southern Sudan. (Credit: The Carter Center)

15. Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter during the Carter Center election witnessing mission in Egypt in May 2012, which marked the first time in Egypt's history that the head of state was directly elected by the people in a competitive election. (Credit: The Carter Center)

16. Jimmy Carter greets a young Nepali boy with the customary Namaste gesture during the Carter Center's observation of Nepal's constituent assembly elections in November 2013. (Credit: The Carter Center)

17. Jimmy Carter celebrates his 90th birthday at The Carter Center in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 1, 2014. (Credit: The Carter Center)