

Carter Presidency Cutlines

1. Jimmy Carter was sworn in as President of the United States on January 20, 1977, by Supreme Court Chief Justice Warren Burger. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
2. The Carters surprised onlookers when they left their car and walked down Pennsylvania Avenue during the Inaugural Parade on January 20, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
3. During the first week of his presidency, Jimmy Carter signs request to Congress to pass Emergency Natural Gas Act. January 26, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
4. Soon after taking office President Carter gives a televised fireside chat to the nation from the White House library on February 2, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
5. President Carter works at his desk in the Oval Office on February 8, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
6. President Carter with daughter Amy and grandson Jason Carter in a tree house designed by the President and Amy and built on the south lawn of the White House. March 10, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
7. Photographed on April 19, 1977, President Carter is shown working on an energy speech to be delivered to a joint session of Congress on April 20, 1977. Pictured left of Carter is Dr. James Schlesinger whom Carter would appoint the first secretary of energy in October 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
8. On May 13, 1977, President Carter signed the public works jobs bill and appropriations bill for economic stimulus package. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
9. President Carter waves atop the steps of Air Force One before departing to Los Angeles to speak to the United Auto Workers convention on May 17, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
10. President Carter works in his study on November 7, 1977. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
11. On February 24, 1978, President Carter signed the Endangered American Wilderness Act, designating approximately 1.3 million acres of land as wilderness areas. This represented the largest single addition to wilderness areas since the Wilderness Act was enacted in 1964. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)

12. President Carter greets school children April 12, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
13. White House portrait of President Carter taken May 1, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
14. President Jimmy Carter and Panamanian General Omar Torrijos with other dignitaries at the signing ceremony for the Panama Canal Treaties, June 16, 1978, in Panama City. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
15. President Carter hosts lunch with the Joint Chiefs of Staff. November 11, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
16. President Carter signs the education bill on November 1, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
17. President signs nation's first national energy legislation, five major bills aimed at conserving energy, reducing dependence on foreign oil, and developing renewable sources of energy. November 9, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
18. President Carter in cabinet meeting November 20, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
19. On January 14, 1979, President Carter accepted the Martin Luther King Jr. Nonviolence Peace Prize at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta, Georgia. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
20. President Carter holds a press conference on January 17, 1979. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
21. President Jimmy Carter and First Lady Rosalynn Carter viewing a gift from Vice Chairman Deng Xiaoping during a state visit at the White House in January 31, 1979, following the announcement of the normalization of relations with China. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
22. President Jimmy Carter and First Lady Rosalynn Carter on a train in Alexandria, Egypt, during a trip to the Middle East, March 9, 1979. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
23. White House portrait of the Carter family, March 26, 1979. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
24. For 13 days, September 5-17, 1978, Jimmy Carter negotiated the Camp David summit between Egypt and Israel. Carter is pictured here at Camp David with Egypt President Anwar Sadat and Israel Prime Minister Menachem Begin on September 7, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)

25. During the Camp David Accords Israel Prime Minister Menachem Begin, U.S. President Jimmy Carter, and Egypt President Anwar Sadat attend a U.S. Marine Corps parade at Camp David on September 7, 1978. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
26. The Camp David summit ended on September 17, 1978. In this photo Egypt President Anwar Sadat, U.S. President Jimmy Carter, and Israel Prime Minister Menachem Begin sign an agreement in the East Room of the White House, thus creating a framework for peace in the Middle East. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
27. In September 1978, Jimmy Carter negotiated the Camp David accords, which created a framework for a peace agreement in the Middle East. Pictured are Egypt President Anwar Sadat, President Carter, and Israel Prime Minister Menachem Begin at the March 26, 1979, White House signing of the resulting Israel-Egypt peace treaty that began an era of lasting peace between the two nations. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
28. White House portrait of President Jimmy Carter and Rosalynn Carter taken in the Oval Office on May 3, 1979. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
29. At the conclusion of a summit meeting in Vienna, Austria, on June 18, 1979, U.S. President Jimmy Carter and Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev sign the SALT II treaty specifying guidelines and limitations for nuclear weapons. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
30. President Carter endorsed the use of solar power as part of a comprehensive plan to strengthen the nation's energy security by conserving energy and developing alternative energy sources. On June 20, 1979, he showed reporters and other guests new solar panels on the West Wing providing hot water for the White House. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
31. President Jimmy Carter and Vice President Walter Mondale in the Rose Garden on Dec. 4, 1979. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
32. On his way back from a trip to Japan, President Carter stops in Alaska for a few hours of fly fishing. July 10, 1980. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
33. Jimmy Carter accepts the presidential nomination of his party at the Democratic National Convention, August 14, 1980. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
34. Jimmy Carter greets a crowd of supporters in Saginaw, Mich., during his campaign for re-election, October 30, 1980. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)

35. On December 2, 1980, President Carter signed the Alaska National Interest Lands Conservation Act, protecting more than 100 million acres of federal lands in Alaska, doubling the size of the country's national parks, and tripling the amount of land designated as wilderness areas. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)
36. Jimmy Carter with the freed American hostages in Wiesbaden, West Germany, January 22, 1981. (Credit: Jimmy Carter Library)